Drifting Championship 2008 in Lithuania

After a long winter holidays the 2008 Drifting Championship in Lithuania is at the Start! Four Drifting Events – four big and interesting Battles and we will know if Lithuania is going to have a new Drift King! This year, all events will be wide spread geographically and will take part in four different places – in Kaunas, Kėdainiai, Palanga and Vilnius. Thousands of Drifting Fans are expected to watch every Drift Battle.

The first event - Battle One will be organized in the industrial part of Kaunas City on the 31st of May. It will be a really hot Drift Night, because participants will have to show their skills late in the evening.

What is more, there are going to be some nice projects during the 2008 season that will surely gain everyone's attention. One of them is called Drift Taxi. Professional Drift Car during the event will give a ride for spectators offering an opportunity to "touch" and feel a real drift.

Drifting championship will be advertised by many popular magazines, website's and exclusively reviewed by fresh e-magazine Per4m Mag (www.per4m.lt). All events is going to be organized by Vsi "Driftas" . Further information is available on official Drifting Championship website - www.drifting.lt .
